

LESTER H. DAVIS FAMILY CEMETERY

Rededication Ceremony – Saturday, June 18, 2022

Davis Town Meeting House Society, Inc., Vice President Suzanne Johnson addressing the guests.

Davis Town Meeting House Society, Inc., Vice President Suzanne Johnson, and President Maryanne Douglas (seated).

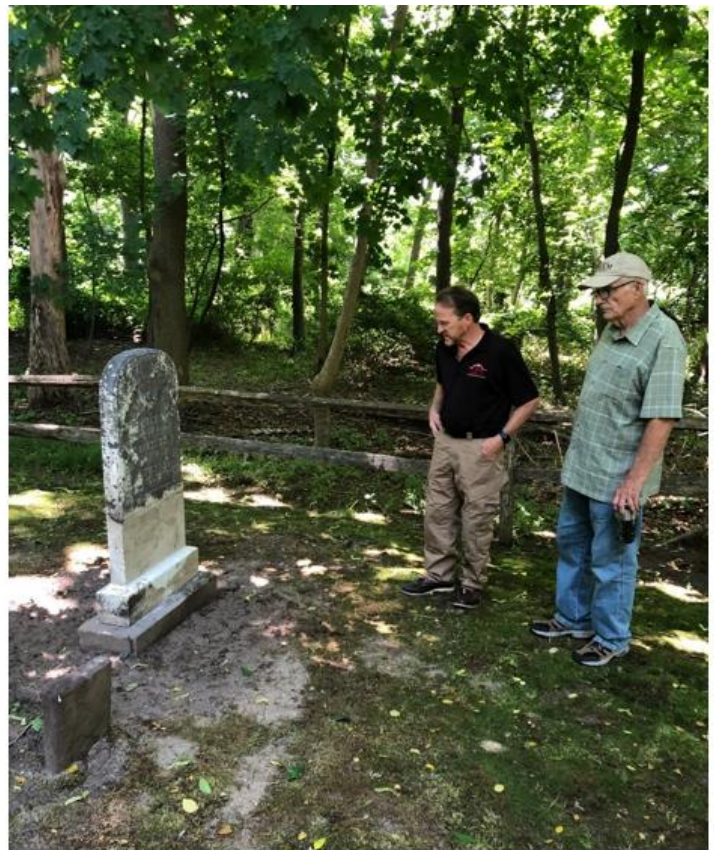

This sign, denoting the names of the Davis Family members who were patriots during the American Revolution, is a wonderful donation from the Long Island Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Suzanne Johnson & Bob Winowitch

Joel Snodgrass and Chris Reilly study the Lewis Goldsmith Davis stone, which needed significant repair. He was the last Davis to be buried there.

Art Billadello, 3rd New York Regiment, 1775 LI Company.

The restoration team!

The grave of Isaac Davis, one of the 6 Patriots buried there.

Elizabeth Brown, 1759-1801, was the first wife of Goldsmith Davis, and the mother of the first four of his 8 children.

The grave of Goldsmith Davis, 1756-1825, a prominent citizen of Brookhaven Town. He was the son of Elijah Davis and Mary Moger, who was the first burial in the cemetery in 1786.

The cemetery has undergone extensive restoration work by the Burying Ground Preservation Group led by Zachary Studenroth, Kurt Kahofer, and Joel Snodgrass. The restoration work was made possible through a generous grant from the Robert David Lion Gardiner Foundation. For more information on the Robert David Lion Gardiner Foundation, click on <https://www.rdlgfoundation.org/>.